Previous Leadership Experience *

What experiences in your personal, professional or political life have helped shape you and made you the person you are today? Discuss your titles, community and civic work, awards and other offices you've held. How do those experiences translate into being a better candidate for the position you are running? Don't just create a laundry list of accomplishments, but work your experience into a larger narrative. A little bit about you personally goes a long way. Voters want to know about you, but maybe not every detail of your life. Include both personal and professional content that helps provide a rounded idea of who you are.

What do you want to accomplish? *

What do you want to accomplish during your time in office? Perhaps your goals can relate to previous accomplishments in your life. Use some examples if you can. Take a situation and how you handled it and use it as a template for this section.

Proper planning and rechecking of any draw backs before proceeding to any construction project. I will reform the construction committee and get more qualified people from our community to become part of the construction team.

I will create many sub committees to perform day to day business of the Center, making sure, there is a system of check and balance between the committees.

Final Thoughts *

End on a strong note. Finish your candidate biography with a strong statement about your purpose for running and what you hope to accomplish in the office you seek. Be inspirational and specific.

My top priority will be to protect our community from any kind of division and avoid politics that can cause hatred in people's heart and make sure the people have a healthy spirit to work for the center to please only Allah(SWT).
