GREAT NEWS!

The Islamic Society of Greater Houston was honored at the State of Texas Capitol on Thursday, May 16th, 2019 for its admirable compassion and initiative in the aftermath of Hurricane Harvey, and for civic engagement opportunities and social services it provides to the community. This resolution was presented in the state assembly with the help of Engage and State Representative Mr. Gene Wu. We wanted to let the community know that Mr. Gene Wu has also invited an ISGH Imam to open the session of the state assembly on Monday, May 20th, with Islamic Prayers. The prayers will start at 10:00 AM sharp. The Imam of the Woodlands Islamic Center, Dr. Mohamed Rihabi, will be there to do the Prayers. This is an honor for the Muslim community in the State of Texas and the rest of the country. The ISGH board of the directors would like to invite our community to join us on Monday morning at the state Capitol to witness this historic occasion.

Br. Sohail Syed and Imam Mohamed Rihabi will be at the east entrance of the Capitol building to receive the community members. Please arrive by no later than 9:15 AM.

Address: W 13th Street, Austin, Texas 78701.

Visitor parking available on the 12th Street please park your car in visitors parking and walk over to the east entrance of the Capitol building.

Jazakum Allah Khair

Sohail Syed

President ISGH.
